Sir Robert Falconer,

Toronto University,

Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Complying with your request of November 24th, I am writing to you to ask if it will be possible for you to address a meeting of the Farmers' Section of the Hamilton Board of Trade on either the 1st, 2nd or 3rd Saturday in March? The luncheons are held at 12.30 in the Royal Connaught. As I stated to you, we wish to make these meetings an educational feature and we are very grateful to you for accepting this invitation to address this organization. I might say that this Farmers' Section of the Board of Trade has been very helpful in creating a good feeling between the urban and rural people of this district.

Yours very truly,

W. G. Mainth

Dear Mr. Mariett:

I am putting down Saturday, March 6th, as the day for my address to the Farmers' Section of the Hamilton Board of Trade. You might call my attention to the matter as the time draws near.

Yours sincerely,

President.

APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA UNDER ORDER 162.
DATED MARCH 30, 1916.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeated telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and in that case the Company shall be liable for damages, suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200., due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable for the act or omission of any other Company, but will endeavor to forward the telegram by any other Telegraph Company necessary to reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephone the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

DAY LETTERS.

This Company will receive DAY LETTERS, to be transmitted at rates lower than its standard telegram rates, as follows: one and one-half times the ten-word Day message rate shall be charged for the transmission of fifty (50) words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for such fifty words shall be charged for each additional ten (10) words or less.

DAY LETTERS may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTERS are, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full-rate messages.

DAY LETTERS shall be written in plain English, or in French. Code language is not permitted.

DAY LETTERS may be delivered by the Telegraph Company by telephoning the same to the addresses, and such deliveries shall be a complete discharge of the obligation of the Telegraph Company to deliver.

DAY LETTERS are received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a DAY LETTER shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTER on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full-rate messages under the conditions named above.

W. G. Marrett, Esq.,
Hamilton.

Dear Mr. Marrett:

To-day for the first time I am in my office after an absence of over a fortnight, but my strength has been greatly reduced by the attack of influenza, and I feel that in my present condition I ought not to undertake to go to Hamilton on Saturday. Will you in these circumstances relieve me of my engagement ? I hope to be able to be with you some time in the future.

With kind regards, I am,
Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir:

We are very sorry that you will not be able to be with us on Saturday. We will be very glad if you will let us know what Saturday you could be with us, before April 12th. We have arranged for March 20th and so could not have you on that date.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Marrett:

I am sorry that it will not be possible for me to go over for you to Hamilton during the months of March or April. I leave for Alberta on the last day of March and am to be away for a fortnight. After my return, however, I might be able to arrange for a day if it were convenient for you.

Yours sincerely,

President.
